

ETLA 100 TRANSITIONS: Leadership in Sports and Society
Test Drive Your Topic!

- 1) Find information for your annotated bibliography (or any other research topic in this class). Using the list of print and online reference works in your library guide (or something else you discovered on your own in the library), find a print or electronic reference item on your topic.

Title of the work your article is in: _____

Title of the article: _____

Author of the article, if one is listed: _____

If it's print, list the call number; if it's electronic, write "online": _____

- 2) Choose a sports figure you admire, and use Biography in Context to find some biographical information on that person.

Name of the person: _____

Title of the work your information came from in BIC _____

Author of the item, if one is listed: _____

- 3) Choose a topic from your reading or class discussion, and use either Academic Search Complete or *America's Newspapers to find an article on it. Circle which database you used.

Title of article: _____

Title of the periodical (or newspaper): _____

Author of the article: _____

Date and pages of the article: _____

If you used Academic Search Complete, was it full-text? _____yes _____no

In a couple of sentences, tell me why you this article would be useful (or not) in your annotated bibliography: